

Black

Trivium

Decomposing in this worthless tomb
Nothingness inhaled, I am consumed
Starving for the ending to this doom
We the parasite, our death overdue
Black
Is opening
Oh, how it stares
So deep
Into the soul
So deep into the soul
Black
Downfall of decimation
Black
It tears apart the night
Black
Downfall of decimation
Black
It tears apart the night
Termination sits across my cell
Waiting patiently to unleash hell
Frothing at the mouth, its hunger tells
Of the feast I'll soon become, my soul melts
Black
Is opening
Oh, how it stares
So deep
Into the soul
So deep into the soul
Black
Downfall of decimation
Black
It tears apart the night
Black
Downfall of decimation
Black
It tears apart the night
Rain
Rain down

On
This hopeless
Scorched abyss
Rain down
Termination's
All we're owed
Rain down
Rain
Rain down
Black
Is opening
Oh, how it stares
So deep
Into the soul
So deep into the soul
Black
Is opening
Oh, how it stares
So deep
Into the soul
So deep into the soul
Black
Downfall of decimation
Black
Black
Downfall of decimation
Black
It tears apart the night
Black
Downfall of decimation
Black
It tears apart the night
