

Destination Heartbreak

Loverboy

One more night, all alone
Sittin' here by the telephone
TV light down the hall
Past the room where we shared it all It coulda been a stranger
But it had to be a friend....
I see my life before me
Now it's coming to an end Destination Heartbreak
Destination Heartbreak Telephone rings; no one's there
Another secret you two can share
Hands are tied, there's nothin' I can do
Can't help the way that I feel for you It coulda been a stranger
But it had to be a friend....
I see my life before me
Now it's coming to an end Destination Heartbreak
Destination Heartbreak I look in the mirror
But I can't see myself
Oh I can see you smiling
In the arms of someone else [Solo] It coulda been a stranger
But it had to be a friend....
I see my life before me
Now it's coming to an end Destination Heartbreak
Destination Heartbreak
Destination Heartbreak
Destination Heartbreak [Solo]
