Les Big Byrd

Look what you've done...a hundred days of rain
Look what you've done...the sky's turning black again
Oh look what you've done...a hundred days of rain
Look what you've done..the sky's turning black againHallowed conscience...you'll be watching over me
Like a sunday suburb daydream
For all my days to come..you'll be watching over meWith the devil by my side
And my seven hundred daydreams
For all my days to come
You'll be watching over meWith the devil by my side
And my seven hundred daydreams
For all my days to come
You'll be watching over me...
