

Orange Alert

The Briefs

its an orange alert time to go and get the family round its an orange alert everybodys goin underground its an orange alert we might be lost but no one has to suffer its an orange alert all you gotta do is duck and cover dont know dont care dont talk dont stare dont know dont care we live in fear the end is near and we are easy to control its an orange alert its an orange alert just today i saw it on the news its an orange alert cant you see its givin me the blues its an orange alert its gonna reck the nation its an orange alert dont you know its gonna reck your vacation dont know dont dont talk dont stare dont know dont care we live in fear the end is near and we are easy to control its an orange alert its an orange alert hey its an orange alert hey its an orange alert hey its an orange alert hey its an orange alert
