

For We Are Many

All That Remains

Oh, yeah
The fire it rages
It burns clear in the night
Illuminates the path before us
Now true our arrows strike
Defy, we heed the call
Defy, strengthen us all
Defy, for we are many
Rising against you
Defy, we heed the call
Defy, strengthen us all
Defy, for we are many
Rising to crush you
Now the tide is turning
Our might striking fear
Our passion foretells our triumph
Smite those who stand against us
Defy, we heed the call
Defy, strengthen us all
Defy, for we are many
Rising against you
Defy, we heed the call
Defy, strengthen us all
Defy, for we are many
Rising against you
We are your fast approaching doom
Now tremble
Let the tyrants fall
Let the sons heed their call
Let the tyrants fall
We are your fast approaching doom
