Chain

The Fire Theft

Chain
I feel the words falling a rhythm
I see the wind bearing it's decision to never give in
I'm amazedI hear the words from some kind of silence
When the world falls into violence
We'll never give in
ChainI see the world falling in a rhythm
I feel the wind bearing it's decision to never give in
I'm afraid
I hear the words from some kind of silenceWhen the world falls into violence
They'll never give in
Chained in silence
The rhythm of violenceChange all around us
Change in everything you see
I'm amazed
I see the world in revolutionWithin the darkness a solution
We'll never give in
Chained in silence
The rhythm of violenceChange all around us
Change in everything you see
