

Like Father Like Son

The Word Alive

If you're not my blood, you are my bones
The only one I've ever known You showed me how to be a man
You don't know what you mean to me
So many secrets run through me Don't fuck with family
Don't fuck with family I've tried to be a better man
For you will see that I've grown I know we've both made mistakes
But you could never fail me
In my heart you're the one who's molded me
To be a man who could make you proud Do you have regrets, do you ever look back
Do you have regrets, don't look back The one I turn to Nobody sees me as you do
You're always there You taught me all I know
(You better me I know)
You taught me all I know
(You better me I know) I'm sorry for the times I made you sad
I just want you to know that I know we've both made mistakes
But you could never fail me
In my heart you're the one who's molded me
To be a man who could make you proud Do you have regrets, do you ever look back
Do you have regrets, don't look back
Don't hold back, don't hold back Many nights I laid awake trying to think of a way to say
But the words just don't seem to escape
They get trapped at the start but the feelings won't fade So here's a song to say I love you
This is the one I hope will let you know
I don't need blood but I need bones
You are my home I know we've both made mistakes
But you could never fail me
In my heart you're the one who's molded me
To be a man who could make you proud Do you have regrets, do you ever look back
Do you have regrets, don't look back
I don't need blood, I need bones
