

The Unequalled Visual Response Mechanism

Disharmonic Orchestra

Stop that horse
He wears my shirt
Regret remorse
Oh how they hurt
Yesterday I rewired the place
The physical description fits
The broken home I left behind
And the rain fell down sad
Withering birds they only wail
And the dying cardens down below
Murder victims talk to me
Tell me all I wanna know
Their dangling receiver's telling me
We only live once there's no more
