

New World Rising/Ocean Breakup Reprise

Electric Light Orchestra

New Dawn, smiling down the world Can you feel it, like the first of Spring
The bells are ringing out a little tune for you Daylight, everybody hears the sound Hey Goodmornin; how you doin; well I'm doin' fine
It's nearly nine I must be gone I see no sorrow now Nobody has a care Hey there, why don't you join me I'll be glad to know you Take some time out, would you like to work or play Or wander slowly through this bright new day Everyone laughs, can't believe what's goin' on round here New World Risin; everybody kicked their blues away
Not for today but evermore I see no sorrow now Nobody has a care New Dawn, smiling down on the world
Can you feel it, like the first of
Spring
The bells are ringing out a little tune for you
