 tto nunmulman heulleo[Translations]There are so many hidden things inside of me
 It made me change so much
 It put me to sleep, it tied my hands and feet
 It trapped me in a dark room
 The pieces of lost time
 The memories of love that I threw away
 They have been deleted and thrown away
 Only the outer shells remain
 Without knowing anything, I just shouted
 I just have that memory
 My heart that was cold as ice

It will be forgotten after I sleep
I want to escape from this pain that chains me down
Someone wake me up
From my soul that is filled with scarsThe deeply colored night sky
Is filled with you, who won't leave
It wakes me from my sleep
Kissing me againYour voice that whispered I love you
Your scent, I hear it in my ears every day
Where are you?You're hidden in a place where I can't see you
The pain you received for me
When my anger becomes one
I'll chase the lost memories from the deep sleep
I want to find the real me that is not you
But the bruises in my heart are too big
I try hiding it but they hide in my heart and wake me up
I met you on the other side of my horrible memories
You embraced even my lost feelings
Helping me get up from being broken
I'm trying not to let go of your hands
I'm trying to erase the nightmares
I'm trying so hard
In this place where I trapped myselfI want to roll up the darkness
And find you
Though I can't touch you
Or be held by youWhat controls me
Isn't what lives in me
What can heal me isn't strong medicine
It's just love
The voice I hear in my ears
Wakes me up from being lost
After it wraps around me and kisses me
It disappears and I can't see it anymoreThe deeply colored night sky
Is filled with you, who won't leave
It wakes me from my sleep
Kissing me againYour voice that whispered I love you
Your scent, I hear it in my ears every day
Where are you?In the night sky that I can't touch
I see you turning back
Making me escape from the exhausted days
Making it into a pictureI'm sorry, I say as I hold onto you
Don't go far away, I call out to you
In the sadness that I can't ever see again
Tears fall again
