

Beautiful Broken Bones

Dead!

La la la, la la la, la la la, la la la
They ain't ever gonna catch us now
From the back of the room
She walks across
In her eyes
You could tell she was lost
She was the one
Who wasn't supposed to get away
So I said to her
How do you do?
I couldn't help but notice you
You seem to have a burden to carry around
So this is for the lost, the broken, and the damned
Any time I hold this gun, take my hand
This is for the hearts, that weaken every day
Any time I hold this gun, we'll find our way
You took my hand
Led me astray
We moved on
To darker days
This city wasn't
Ready for us to (ready for us to)
When her money came
She whispered to me
"You can't fix everybody
Some people are meant to be
Beautiful broken bones"
We're star-crossed
Look in your eyes
We all fled
Into the night
They were never gonna
Let us get away
So scream it out to the world
This is for the lost, the broken, and the damned
Any time I hold this gun, take my hand
This is for their hearts, that will weaken every day
Any time I hold this gun, we'll find our way
All we are

Are beautiful broken bones La (so scream it to the world)

La la la la la

La (so much your heart cries out)

La la, la (we'll put our hands together)

La la la la la la (and send them straight back to hell)

La (we'll be a wave of this noise)

La la la la la (now sing it with me boys)

La

La la la, la la la, la la la, la la la

They ain't never gonna catch us now

So this is for the lost, the broken, and the damned

Some people are meant to be

We're star-crossed

Look in your eyes

We all fled

Into the night

They were never gonna

Let us get away

So scream it out to the world

This is for the lost, the broken, and the damned

Any time I hold this gun, take my hand

This is for their hearts, that will weaken every day

Any time I hold this gun, we'll find our way

All we are

Are beautiful broken bones La (so scream it to the world)

La la la la la

La (so much your heart cries out)

La la, la (we'll put our hands together)

La la la la la la (and send them straight back to hell)

La (we'll be a wave of this noise)

La la la la la (now sing it with me boys)

La la la, la la la, la la la, la la la

They ain't never gonna catch us now

So this is for the lost, the broken, and the damned

Any time I hold this gun, take my hand

This is for the hearts, that weaken every day

Any time I hold this gun, we'll find our way

So this is for the lost, the broken, and the damned

Any time I hold this gun, take my hand

This is for the hearts, that weaken every day

Any time I hold this gun, we'll find our way

Any time I hold this gun, take my hand

This is for the hearts, that weaken every day

Any time I hold this gun, we'll find our way
So this is for the lost, the broken, and the damned
Any time I hold this gun, take my hand
This is for the hearts, that weaken every day
Any time I hold this gun, we'll find our way
