Afraid This Time

Celldweller

Even if you want, you can't touch me now Leave me if you want, you can't hurt me nowBuild them up - high and strong, so you'll never have to hurt too long Put them up - til they surround, and there's no real you left to be found Hold it up - high above, no fear of hope or trust or love Close it up - and hold your ground, and wait until it's time to finally close it downEven if you want, you can't touch me now Leave me if you want, you can't hurt me nowThis isn't easy to admit, I don't think I'm believing it
I'm afraid this time
This isn't easy to admit but I don't think I'm believing it It's not the same this time
This isn't easy to admit but I don't think I'm believing itBuild them up,
so you'll never have to hurt too long Put them up,
Hold it up,
no fear of hope or trust or love
Close it up, and wait until it's time to finally close it downThis isn't easy to admit but I don't think I'm believing it
I'm afraid this time
This isn't easy to admit but I don't think I'm believing it
It's not the same this timeEven if you want, you can't touch me now Leave me if you want, you can't hurt me now (I'm afraid)This isn't easy to admit, but I'm afraid
