

Turn Off Your T.V.

The Stereo

turn off the TV and sing we look lost, where to begin? step outside the cage in your head the station's wrong, the frequency dead somehow this seems like a hollywood blockbuster scene like a football team but it's not a good thing at all it's a sign we cannot read turn off the radio now we don't know why or know how how this could be like a nightmare on your street dream like a friday 13 but it's such a waste of our time it's a mess that we can't clean feel the urgency say it's alright this emergency and wonder what it means so stay in tonight a just watch TV so what do we need it's the same out of date harmony like some tired melody and it's such a waste of our time it's a mind without a dream
