

A&E (Millions Like Us Remix)

Morning Parade

Sixty seconds time, weightless weightless
You just try to settle it
As he looks into your eyes, he says if, says if
If you could only know, only know This is not an accident
This is an emergency
This is not an accident
This is an emergency
Oh, this is not an accident
No, this is
Just how you planned it So she looks into your eyes
And screams say something, say that your heart beats for me
Are we breathing
Are we breathing This is not an accident
This is an emergency
Oh, this is not an accident
This is an emergency
Oh, this is not an accident
No, this is
Just how you planned it You'll remember me in the morning
You'll remember me tonight
And say this is not an accident
No, this is
Just how you planned it You've got blood on your dirty hands
You've got that look on your dirty face
You either live up to my demands
Or take your secrets into your grave, just go
This is not an accident
No, this is
Just how you planned it
