

Circus Horrors

Ultimate Fakebook

Do ya think we need it Do ya think we feed it Does its stomach growl when we ring those bells? Do ya think we'll like it Should we be exited to see us both peel down, down to brand new skin? CHORUS The circus tent is in town I always thought it would end feelin' like it's the worst it's been but you know, that's okay 'cause I believe she said "I want you to know that Time turns into laughter and we'll be fallin' faster." So that's all it costs to play, but I'm not sure I'll ever see the day I'm not confused Did ya see his daring Did ya feel like screamin' Did it make you see the horror in a dream? Can ya feel the fiction The myth and my mission To steal this bag of clowns and join the Freak Parade? CHORUS
