I'ts Good

Katelyn Tarver

I'm lookin' forward not lookin' back
I'm losing time not keepin' track
I'm trying to keep my heart in tact
I'm tryin' to give what I gave back.
I'm just a girl with crazy dreams
I see the sun and everything, I hold onto what I believe like love, and trust, and you and me.It's good, everything will turn out like it should
I know that I'm gonna get it a little bit right, a little bit wrong
Still I'm gonna sing my song It's good, so good
Like it should be. Oh, like it should be.I see the world through brighter eyes
I find the beauty where it hides
I'm gonna keep that light alive
I'm gonna smile at the sky.
I'm just a girl with crazy dreams that never end up how they seem but,
I like that mystery of love, and trust, and you and me.It's good, everything will turn out like it should
I know that I'm gonna get it a little bit right, a little bit wrong
Still I'm gonna sing my song It's good, so good
Like it should be.
Oh, like it should be.
