

Never Be Another

Delilah

why'd you do babe
what you do
well your proof babe is untrue
why'd you do babe
what you do tell me once, tell me twice i will hear you
we used to be long life do anything right for you i can't stand by, live a lie with you cause there'll never be another one hear my song, hear my voice screamin' help me i will be on the floor beggin' save me i'm told remember this man looking for my hand i could but there'll never be another one, so why'd you do babe
what you do
well your proof babe is untrue
why'd you do babe
and there won't be another one hi my dear, bye my dear tell me you want me ask you once, be sincere do you love me i could try for you, write for you, die for you and there'll never be another one, so why'd you do babe
well your proof babe is untrue
why'd you do babe
and there won't be another one boy, i can feel your heart bursting through my chest i can feel your lips running all down my neck still i hear your lies, these words should not be said one question i can't get out of my head why'd you do babe
well your proof babe is untrue
why'd you do babe
what you do
well your proof babe is untrue
why'd you do babe
what you do
well your proof babe is untrue
why'd you do babe

never be another one
