Erased

Trust Company

I feel I'm falling behind
The same way again
Still tracing the same line
But looking for the end
I'm fading, gone away
I almost feel erased
I'm fading, gone away
And now I feel erased
I'm still alone tonight
Somewhere I can't see
I'm looking for the light
By looking into me

I'm fading, gone away
I almost feel erased
I'm fading, gone away
And now I feel erased
Erased
Today I feel I'm fading, gone away
I almost feel erased
I'm fading, gone away
And now I feel erased, erased, erased, erased
Erased, erased, erased
Now I feel erased
