

A Is for Astronaut

Deacon Blue

You don't have to be grateful
For all the world's ills
There's plenty of people
Never seen the white cliffs of Dover So come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on
A is for astronaut
E is for everything
So come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on
A is for astronaut
E is for everything Got caught in the headlights
Saying something special
There's never a moment
When the beat stops long enough to hear the message So come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on
A is for astronaut
E is for everything
So come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on
A is for astronaut
E is for everything We all get stuck and we don't know why
We think there's no place we can go to
We need to trip on to So come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on
A is for astronaut
E is for everything
So come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on
A is for astronaut
E is for everything
So come on, come on
Come on, come on, come on
A is for astronaut
E is for everything
