Reviver

Callers

Another wave crashes down, found alone.
They were always meant to... make amends
Another year comes crashing down,
With all the weight and all the sound
Where the water exits high and leaves forgiven
It goes on and on and on Wait wait! Can i get it back from this?
Unfold the lives, a haze dismissed
Where I couldn't remember, no I Couldn't remember the way I used to be
With this, always back alive
With this, I'll be back alive
Left to writeChorus:
I wait for angels, reappear (reappear)
To bring back bravery from fear (from fear)
And the silence, the grey
To resurface on us, and come what mayit took time to figure my escape, withdraw pain and my distaste
When the battles became more than I could take, and it goes on and on and onWait wait, cause I'm coming back from this memories of life and loss exist
And I could always remember, yes
I will always remember
The way you used to beWit this, always back alive (x2)
Left to rightChorusAnd come what may! (x2)Head to the light, its up to us, bring it! (x2)Fighting ourselves, just to break chains from Fighting ourselves
Just to breakI wait for angels, reappear
To bring back bravery from....(FROM FEAR!)Chorus
