

Give Me Tonight

Art of Fighting

Sometimes when you're like this I want no part
Like every start you makes a false start
That's holding you back in the past
If you give me an answer that I can hold on to Something that we can belong to
Will you make it last
Give me tonight
Say that you might
I'll make it all right
'Cause now your indifference has grown
I don't want to follow your shadow home
Your whole world is an early night
So won't you do something with me tonight
Under this pretty sky
