

Judgement Strikes (Unbreakable)

Hatebreed

Worthless, is what you made your life
Failure, is what you set yourself up for
You don't have the power to realize your dreams
Now you want to take from me Jealousy seethes through your callous words
So content you're visionless
Void of emotion
I pray for someone to release me from your grasp It's evident
Your guilt
It's evident
That this judgment strikes down on you Unbreakable
And you're guilty
Unbreakable
I'm not going down without a fight You try to break my world
You breached our trust to destroy me with lies
Now you've fallen you're nothing again
Live my hatred, it's you I despise
Love my hate
Uhh
