

Jellyfish

Vashti Bunyan

Last night I dreamt that I jumped in the sea
Wearing a pale blue flouncing dancing dress
I wanted you to rescue me Desperately
Last night I dreamt that you were looking down I twisted and twirled and held my skirt out like a girl
I could see you frown at me Soundlessly...And then I saw that all that you saw
Was a Portuguese Man of War
Then I saw that all that you saw
Was a Portuguese Man of War
Last night I dreamt that I drowned in the sea Wearing your frown and going down and down
and down
I've come to my senses now
Hopefully
hopefully
hopefully...
