

You and Me Against the World

Mocca

baby, hold my hand
count to ten
break the chain
im gonna take you inside my spacebaby, dont be afraid maybe its our fate
just wait and see im going to shout about it it is you and me against the world dont waste our time for tomorrow with you by my side
i can do anything
you and me against the world
goodbye to all of our sorrowso lets just put them aside put all the worries behind us
