

Looking For Love (Interlude)

Janet Jackson

We're vulnerable
We're sensitive
And we're complicated people too So many people rolled into one
We contain so much
So much creativity, so much energy
So many contradictions, so much confusion So much clarity
So many moments of faith and fear
So many different characters live within us
All looking for love All looking for love
All looking for love
All looking for love
