Run

Carpark North

Watch my tail
As my tail will stinch you
I stay
While we are bleeding

those wet eyes
Do they mean it's over
A sea for us To drown in

step out
And walk away
From the shadows we can't save
At all

run
Don't belong
Just hang on Just be strong
Run
Just hang on
And be strong

watch yourself
'cause I might
Just breake everything
That we are building

see the tears
And the lines they're tracing
I give my breath
To dry them

step out
And walk away
From the shadows we can't save
At all

run
Don't belong

Just hang on
Just be strong
Run
Just hang on
And be strong

far more stronger
Reaching longer
As we keep running

run
Don't belong
Just hang on
Just be strong
Run
Just hang on
And be strong
