Be Beautiful

David Ryan Harris

Everyone's trying to go somewhere
Nobody's quite satisfied
Trying to keep up with the Jones'
Feeling so empty insideDon't you know
There's something about you
That's perfect
I want you to see who you are
And just let it beAll you've got to do is
Believe you belong
And be beautifulBe free, be strong
And be beautiful
Begin to befriend
And be beautifulYeah, you are
You are
And we can be beautiful
Be beautiful, be beautifulYou're right next to me and you're lonely
You keep to yourself so you're blue
It's a good way to start off a new thing
But I don't think that you have a clueAll of this time trying to do what Somebody else wants you to do
While you are out there pretending
There's probably someone that wants to be you
Or just like youThere's something about you that's perfect
I wish you could see what I see in you
And you'd let it be'Cause all you gotta do is
Believe that you belong
And be beautifulBe free, be strong
Be beautifulSomething happens when you begin
To befriend
Be beautifulI do believe that you are
We can be
Be beautifulBe beautiful, be beautiful
Be beautiful, yeah
Be beautiful
Clap your hands
Clap your handsBe beautiful, be beautiful
You and me can be beautiful
Be beautiful, be beautiful
Be beautiful
