

Burning Down

Curly Heads

You let me down, cant fix you now
Thought i could count on you to be around
You bring me down, down, down way down

What is the problem

Are you taking me seriously

Is it a joke to you

Or maybe im a fool

Why am i trying

So hard to be the girl that you need

How is this fair to me

When you break through

This is to much

Dont call it love

You are the reason its so hard to trust

Boy this aint what i wanted

And now its got to stop

You let me down, cant fix you now

Thought i could count on you to be around

You bring me down, down, down way down

No more tears

Why did i let you have so much control

I gave my arm to you

And you pushed me away

Why are you here oh

Dont you see im letting you go

The damage is done baby

I have nothing to say

Its gone to far

Dont know who you are

I think its better that we are apart

Babe i know where i am

And i know where your near

You let me down, cant fix you now

Thought i could count on you to be around

You bring me down, down, down way down

You let me down, thought i had had found

Some one to catch me when i hit the ground

You bring me down, down, down way down (ooooh)

Would you like it if
I did the same thing to
You and i lasted
Walking years on ma shoes
Boy theres no excuse
Cause of what you did theres no me and you
Would you like it if
I did the same thing
You wouldnt of liked
Walking in time
Thats who you are and im so over you
You bring me down, down, down way down
You let me down, thought i had had found
Some one to catch me when i hit the ground
You bring me down, down, down way down
Down
Down
Stop bringing me, stop bringing me
Down down
Oooh
