Cassandra, Pt. 2

Area 11

Still
Though it doesn't really matter now
I cant believe that I got so far,
I got so far behind
My Love

You use me, and I use you
I your savior, you my muse
The best friend that you been to me
But I wanna be your enemy
(I wanna be you Enemy)

You stare at me with mirrorless eyes
You want a reaction, want a reaction
You wear a red dress, when your in a bull fight
Your drawing attention to your double lies

Dreams, I'm coming to find you
An when I wake up, I want anyone else
Coz' I don't love you
Thats what I'm telling myself

This was the moment, this was the place
This was the night that everything changed
I'm hiding from you, Hiding from you
Hiding from you, coz' we are the same

Were not just numbers we are alive
A digital haunt in an analog life
I'm hiding from you, Hiding from you
Hiding inside you, coz' we are the same
Woo

Wait, just wait for me and I'll come around
Back up, log on and we'll leave this town
And we'll run around
And live in secret worlds and say were secret words

And I'm still encrypted, I am a machine
Link up behind this computer screen

My best friend that I've never seen
Thats turned you into my enemy

Now its all in my mind I feel
I should save myself before this gets to real

This was the moment, this was the place
This was the night that everything changed
I'm hiding from you, Hiding from you
Hiding from you, coz' we are the same

Were not just numbers we are alive
A digital haunt in an analog life
I'm hiding form you, Hiding from you
Hiding inside you, coz' we are the same
