Beggin' Me

Kaci

You made the choice, you decided to go
I pleased and cried but you still said, "No"
But now I realize that I just don't need you
Don't return beggin', please
'Cause it's done and we're through
We are just not meant to be
So baby, I'm askin' you, please
Don't come beggin' me
Tryin' to get to me
You'll start needin' me
Don't come beggin' me
You'll run to me
And you'll start wantin' me
But there is no you and me
So don't come beggin' me
I know you though that you had me right there
In the palm of your hand but you just didn't care
Till you looked in your hand and you saw I was gone
Now the tables are turned and I suggest you move on
I am happier now that I'm free
So I'm asking, no telling you, please
Don't come beggin' me
Tryin' to get to me
You'll start needin' me
Don't come beggin' me
You'll run to me
And you'll start wantin' me
But there is no you and me
So don't come beggin' me
Gi-gi-give it up 'cause you know
That I want to have you back
Back in my world and I know that
I'm sorry and all that, never do it again
If you be my girl
Yeah, I see you and I want you
Let me come back and be your boo
I was playin' you, now I'm prayin' you, forgive me
Kaci, I'm beggin' you
You threw it away and now you stand here today

Wantin' me to forget everythin' you did
Don't come beggin' me
Tryin' to get to me
You'll start needin' me
Don't come beggin' me
You'll run to me
And you'll start wantin' me
But there is no you and me
So don't come beggin' me
