

The Scat Song

Cab Calloway & His Orchestra

When your sweetie tells you, everything'll be okay,
Just skeep-beep de bop-bop beep bop bo-dope skeetle-at-de-op-de-day! If you feel like shoutin', advertise it just this way:
And skeep-beep de bop-bop beep bop bo-dope skeetle-at-de-op-de-day! Don't give a hang what words you use at any time,
Sing this silly language, without any reason or rhyme. When you face the preacher, there's only one thing to say:
Just skeep-beep de bop-bop beep bop bo-dope skeetle-at-de-op-de-day! [Scat chorus]

Another version

[Starts with impressive scatting, then:] Spoken: [Bennie Payne?] Say, what you doin', boy? [Cab] Oh, man, I'm just scatting and going right on to town, Satchmo! When your sweetie tells you, everything'll be okay,

Just:

If you feel like shoutin', advertise it just this way:

And

Don't give a hang what words you use at any time,

Sing this silly language, without any reason or rhyme. When you face the preacher, there's only one thing to say:

Just [Followed by incredible scat-singing!]
