

Breaking Your Own Heart

Kelly Clarkson

Shaking your head like it's all wrong
Before you're here you're already gone
And even with the light all around you
You're all alone in the dark You're breaking your own heart
Taking it too far down a lonely road
You say you just want love but when it's close enough
You just let it go
The very thing you've been the most afraid of you've been doing from the start
Breaking your own heart Too many tears, too many falls
It's easier here behind these walls
But you don't have to walk in the shadows
When life is so hard You're breaking your own heart
Taking it too far down a lonely road
You say you just wanna love but when it's close enough
You just let it go
The very thing you've been the most afraid of you've been doing from the start
Breaking your own heart
You're breaking your own heart It's not too late, I'm still right here
If only you'd let go of your fears You're breaking your own heart
Taking your own heart down a lonely road (down a lonely road)
You say you just wanna love but when it's close enough
You just let it go (you just let it go)
The very thing you've been the most afraid of you've been doing from the start
Breaking your own heart
Breaking your own heart
