Fragmented

Front Line Assembly

Pushed to the edge
We drive, we drive a wedge
Of hate and fear, don't shed a tearNo one to trust
This life, this life's a bust
This hand of greed, we need to feedCan't stop the bleeding
These wounds aren't healing
Who wants to live for another day
Skies are graying who is prayingParalysis of self injection
Mortal coil no protection
Disagree spineless sea
Hypocracy will set you freeIn the end we all bend
No more time to change your mind
Two by two we'll march through
In the end you'll die tooCan't stop the bleeding
These wounds aren't healing
Who wants to live for another day
Skies are graying who is prayingCan't stop the bleeding
These wounds aren't healing
Who wants to live for another day
Skies are graying who is praying
