You keep holding on Your not alone,
Stay strong no time to feel weak,
Wake up its time to look deep,
Don't wait to the end of time. Open your mind,
Open your mind and see,
Trust is their and the writings green,
Surely its time to deal with me. Look I know the feeling,
I know your deep in working it out but their ain't no reason,
And I know its all this evening,
I promise you I'm the air that your breathing,
Where here with you,
In the same pase as you,

Not alone were all inside
Open your eyes and minds,
Open your minds and eyes. Your not alone,
Stay strong no time to feel weak,
