

Snail (Live Radio Performance)

Smashing Pumpkins

All your seven dreams
Look close, son, and you'll believe
As your things come undone
See you are the only one Flower, seize the hour I did
I wait
Waiting, waiting for your wake
I'll wait When you wake up, you're all weak
Throwing your life away
Someday, sorry coming home
Sorry snail, what you wait for Flower, the pain will wash away
Away
When the sun shines, climbs through your window
Into your bed When you wake up you're all weak
Throwing your life away
Someday, sorry coming home
Sorry snail, down in my heart Flower save the hours
Flower away What you wait for
Flower chase the sunshine
Flower chase the sunshine
Flower
