

Ugly

Recliner

You got a face like stone Nothing moves you
You got got a mind to reach Still I lose you

He says that he loves you
And maybe he does
In a way he cannot explain

And maybe he does
In a way I cannot explain

You got hands that touch
But there's no feeling
You got a mouth to kiss
It's only steaming

He says that he loves you
And maybe he does
In a way he cannot explain

And maybe he does
In a way I cannot explain

You got words that crush
They land so gently
Like a leaf that falls Whispers to kill me

And maybe he does
In a way he cannot explain

And maybe he does
In a way I cannot explain

loves you, loves you

says he loves you
loves you, loves you

loves you loves you
says he loves you
loves you loves you

loves you loves you
says he loves you
loves you loves you

loves you loves you
says he loves you
loves you loves you
