

Am I Too Much?

Vanessa Williams

Pressure, pressure
Can you take the heat, boy?
I wanna know
Are you just a weak boy? Pressure, pressure
I don't wanna make you sweat, baby
But you don't even know what pressure is
We haven't got started yet I know you've been Watching my every move
But baby, what's that look on you face?
Right now I'm not your average lady
Don't act so surprised
Most boys can't keep up at my pace
And that's a fact Oh, I'm not trying to scare you, no
I'm only trying to be polite
So pardon me for asking, baby
But boy, you look a little uptight Tell me, am I too much?
Am I too much for you?
Am I too much?
Am I too much for you? Now, listen up If you get to know me
You'll understand
Why I am the woman
That I am You say you're tired of
Trying to figure me out
I guess, you know by now
I set the trend and you love it Oh, I'm not trying to scare you, no
I'm only trying to live my life
So pardon me for asking, baby
But boy, you look a little uptight Tell me, am I too much?
Am I too much for you?
Am I too much?
Am I too much for you? Pressure, pressure
Can you take the heat, boy?
I wanna know
Are you just a weak boy? Pressure, pressure
I don't wanna make you sweat, baby
But you don't even know what pressure is
We haven't got started yet Are you nervous
Or do you always act this way? Oh, I'm not trying to scare you, no
I'm only trying to live my life

So pardon me for asking, baby
But boy, you look a little uptight Tell me, am I too much?
Am I too much for you?
Am I too much?
Am I too much for you? Am I too much?
Am I too much for you?
Am I too much?
Am I too much for you?
