

Lose You Again (feat. BRÃ VES)

WALK THE MOON

Somebody tripped the alarm
 Oh I found Eden and saw too much
 Now my angels are dressed up in armor
 Tell me why And I was holding your hand like this
 The inevitable first kiss
 [?] hurt so deep
 We're too young to end like this I remember the rain that day
 I remember I held your face
 Now the tears are rolling, rolling, cut so deep
 Too scared to give it away
 I don't wanna lose you again
 I don't wanna lose you again, again
 I don't wanna lose you again (give it away)
 I don't wanna lose you again, again
 I don't wanna lose you again (give it away)
 I don't wanna lose you again, again
 I don't wanna lose you again (give it away)
 I don't wanna lose you again, again
 I don't wanna lose you again Came in without a warning
 Not even a calm before the storm
 Now, can you tell me how to redeem it
 This lie I've held inside And I was holding your hand like this
 The inevitable first kiss
 [?] hurt so sweet
 We're too young to end like this
 I remember the rain that day
 I remember I held your face
 Now the tears are rolling, rolling, cut so deep
 Too scared to give it away I don't wanna lose you again
 I don't wanna lose you again, again
 I don't wanna lose you again (give it away)
 I don't wanna lose you again, again
 I don't wanna lose you again (give it away)
 I don't wanna lose you again, again
 I don't wanna lose you again (give it away)
 I don't wanna lose you again, again
 I don't wanna lose you again (give it away)
 I don't wanna lose you again, again I don't wanna lose you again And I was holding your hand like this
 The inevitable first kiss
 Now the tears are rolling, rolling, cut so deep
 We're too young to end like this I don't wanna lose you again

I don't wanna lose you again, again
I don't wanna lose you again (give it away)
I don't wanna lose you again, again
I don't wanna lose you again (give it away)
I don't wanna lose you again, again
I don't wanna lose you again (give it away)
I don't wanna lose you again, again
I don't wanna lose you again (give it away)
I don't wanna lose you again
(I don't wanna lose you again)
