

Never Let Go (feat. Keri Hilson)

Anthony Hamilton

How can I prepare you
For how I wanna love you
And I know you've been hurting
Pain and love is all the same in your eyes
So baby take a chance to really let me show you and if you open up I'll teach you how to love for life
hey cause the lonely never win yeahChorus:
But if I love you (I'll never let you go)
How can I trust you (just tell me what you want)
(Take me back) When i need you (girl put your heart in mine)
I promise that will never let it go
I don't wanna cry no more (no not a single tear)
'Cause I've been broken (well now that i'm here)
To teach me how to love again,
(Girl put your heart in mine) I promise that i will never let you goYeah
I done seen a lot of things
Heard alot of men claim
They gonna love me forever tell me now
What makes you different yeah
I gave all I had
All the way down to my last..
Boy I need you right now to show me how
To trust my heart over my mind yeah
Cause the lonely never wins[Chorus:]I never wanna let you go, no baby
Wanna love you with my heart and soul
But I gotta know[Chorus:]
