

Blue Times Two

Avail

god I feel like hell
for myself and you
and I hate myself
to ends so absolute
go
walking still below ceilings going round and round nine in the evening now and I ain't never shared more than times allowed without you leading I could just stay and fight oh I'd still feel justified but I don't always do what I intend my mind stands to fail
with or without much detail for that it's far too late standing still but not believing that talking round and round will solve everything right now and I ain't never dared let a word slip out do you breathe when speaking? cause I've been here all night and you talked your throat fucking dry did you even mean a word you said?
my mind stands to fail
and I can do without distractions
god I feel like hell
for myself and you
my mind stands to fail
with or without much detail (x3)
my mind stands to fail

let's accept mistakes were made
