Trouble Sleeping (Acoustic) [Bonus Track]

The Perishers

I'm having trouble sleeping
You're jumping in my bed
Twisting in my head
Leave meI'm having touble breathing
You're sitting on my chest
I sure could use the rest
Leave meIt's you
Why's it always you and never me
Never dared to let my feelings free
Why's it always you and never me
Never cared too much for honestyI'm having trouble sleeping
I'm thinking of what you said
Of all the tears being shed
Leave meIt's you
Why's it always you and never me
Never dared to let my feelings free
Why's it always you and never me
Never cared too much for honestyIt's you
Now and always you but never me
Never dared to let my feelings free
Why's it always you and never me
Never cared too much for honesty
