Last Escape

Sinergy

I lay down on snow covered sheets of loneliness and I weep, I'm crying out for you I'm longing just to have one more chance...My hands are reaching out to you And right now...
I stand here frozen with fear my heart is shattering in two please don't leave me here to live alone I am so lost, no where to go my world is grey without youAlone... I'm filled emptiness alone... I call your name and alone I bid farewell so long... I end my emptiness alone... no hope remains so long... no name to call and so long, I leave this life so long... no need for hope [SOLO : Laiho]I have failed, I let you down my dear lay me down, this is my final resting place this shame overwhelming inside of meso goodbye...
I've fallen too many times ...I have to leave my world behind can't take rejection anymore I wont' be missed anyway I'll fall into serenity now it's time to meet my destiny Alone... I'm filled emptinessalone... I call your name alone... no hope remains
and alone I bid farewell
and so long, I leave this life
so long... no name to callso long... no need for hope [SOLO : Laiho]Alone... I'm filled emptiness alone... I call your name
so long... no name to call
so long... no need for hope and so long, I leave this lifeGoodbye...
