In Pieces

Shannon Noll

You're in my air
Every breathe that I take, I can't escape

Oh, everywhere I go

I feel your stare like you're there

Can't you see I'm scattered

Like memories from the past

Shattered like a bullet through glassI'm in pieces

On what might've been

Every night I'm spending sleepless

Smokin' cigarettes 'till 3am

In an empty bed and I can't get you out of my headYou burnt your name

Into my heart where its scarred

I can't erase you from me

You soul and mine intertwined

You cut the line

And I'm drifting

Holdin' to the past

Memories like a bullet through glassI'm in pieces

On what might've been

Every night I'm spending sleepless

Smokin' cigarettes 'till 3am

In an empty bed and I can't get you out of my head

Oh, I can't get you out my headOutta my head

Outta my life

Outta my dream

Broken emotion

You left me in piecesScattered like memories from the past

Shattered like a bullet through glassI'm in pieces

On what might've been

Every night I'm spending sleepless

Smokin' cigarettes 'till 3am

In an empty bed and I cant get you out of my headNo, I cant get you outta my headOutta my head x 9
