

The Girl Got Hot

Weezer

I went to a show last Saturday night
The band was doing their thing
The mosh pit started and then the crowd parted
And then was Kiki DI knew this girl back in junior high school
And nobody gave her a look
Look at what we got, the girl got hot
Switched up and rewrote the bookSatin tights, boots so white
Leather handbag out of sight
Used to mean a little, now means a lot
Oh my goodness me, the girl got hot
The girl got hotThe first thing I did when I got up the nerve
Was say, "Hey baby, what's up?"
She kept on dancing, refused my romancing
And that's when I fell in loveI stepped to the floor with my best friend Jill
And tried to thicken the plot
The thing I finally found with these other girls in town
She got hot and they did notSatin tights, boots so white
Leather handbag out of sight
Used to mean a little, now means a lot
Oh my goodness me, the girl got hotSatin tights, boots so white
Leather handbag out of sight
Regal feather in her feathered hair
Dash of Rouge, buyer beware
What used to mean a little, now means a lot
Oh my goodness me, the girl got hotThe girl got hot, the girl got hot
The girl got hot, the girl got hot
The girl got hot, the girl got hot
The girl got hot, the girl got hot
