Now

Avail

when's better than now
to come with nothing and deny you
to not believe a thing you say i've restrained but it can't go down this way eye's that lie - hide burning time, burning time & blaming memory to return back to a comfort in an attempt to feel complete than tokenize with lying eye's as if to care and it's a shock that you leave calmly as fas as you appear
to take blame unscathed and remain estranged i can walk straight estranged with blinders bound time
oh i won't let myself be troubled or deny i'm part guilty the road will rise blackened skies in time will clear though it's a shock now to the body to be without you near
