Crush

Full Scale

I will move inside you,
With clarity that far becomes you,
What I know is what I feel and
What I feel is what I know
And you can feel.What I fear is I'm never understanding,
What I fear is I'm never understood
But what I know is that I can only suffer
In fear.You're my crush my desire,
The one to inspire,
The fear and the loathing,
That's dragging me under.
What you have shown me
Is my soul so naked,
All that I know is that one day I'll die.I will counter your attack,
You only move in and out of the cracks,I'm the one,
You're the one.You want this feel, but ya,
You can't just steal it ya,
You've got to kneel and
You're never gonna know cause you're never gonna touch this.You want this flow but ya,
You can't just know,
It's the way you grow,
You're never gonna know cause you're never gonna touch this.You want this touch yes ya,
Want it to much then it,
Becomes your crush,
You're never gonna know cause you're never gonna touch this.What is this feeling? The one that crawls inside you?
It's the crush that that you're blind to the one that defines you.
