Ugly Side

Dipsomaniacs

I must have sneezed, on knees I freeze
I mean, I just choked up
But somehow I slept, I dream, I mean
I dreamt of nothingI'm able to breathe a sweet relief
Now that you're here for me
A northern degree dove into me
Now I'm recoveringI only want you to see
My favorite part of me
And not my ugly side
And not my ugly side, ugly sideSo hook up a C.B
Wave a way for conversation flow
I'm shoved in your cage, to wage this rage
Don't let me goA kick and a scream
Is all that seems to mean a lot, thus far
Yeah, I won't let you on my stage, my page
You can't know, yet you have to knowAnd that I only want you to see
My favorite part of me
And not my ugly side
And not my ugly sideI only want you to see
My favorite part of me
And not my ugly side
And not my ugly sideSo calm, ohh ooh
And it's so calmAnd now it's dark
I look for you to light my heart
I'm between the moon and where you are
I know I can't be far
