Please Come Back

Michelle Tumes

I can't breathe, it's agony
Wondering where you are
Picture me on my knees
Have you run too far?Can you hear can you hear
The sound of my heart break
With each step you take?
Can you feel, can you feel me when I say"Please come back to me?"
I miss you, will you come to your senses?
Please come back to me
I await the day when I prepare the feast
And I embrace you running to meAll I am, all I have
Is yours to find
You hide and seek, you think you're free
But you're wasting timeI can hear, I can hear
The sound of footsteps pounding
Regret resounding
I believe, I believe the hour is nearPlease come back to me
I miss you, will you come to your senses?
Please come back to me
I await the day when I prepare the feast
And I embrace you running to meWhat would you give for a ransomed heart?
Would it cost too much?
I'm telling you now
If you run to me, you will be freePlease come back to me
I miss you, will you come to your senses?
Please come back to me
I await the day when I prepare the feast
And I embrace you running to meYou'll be running
You'll be running back to me
You'll be running
You'll be running back to mePlease come back to me
Please come back to me
Please come back to me
Please come back to me
