Someday

The Perishers

You say you left to find reasons not to stay
And you say you lost yourself somewhere on the way
You say livin' is easier when I'm around
And you say you need my help to get off the groundBut I'm not gonna go home tonight
I ain't gonna leave 'til I know you'll be alright
But I'm afraid we're searchin' for things we'll never find
'Cause your problems are just like mine, they're hard to defineSomeday all of this pain may make sense to you
Some say losin' it all can bring somethin' newBut I'm not gonna go home tonight
I ain't gonna leave 'til I know we'll be alright
But I'm afraid that you and I are wastin' our time
'Cause your problems are just like mine, they're hard to defineSomeday, someday
We're searchin' for things we'll never find
Your problems are just like mine, they're hard to defineSome say you have to fall to learn how to fly
Someday, we may understand just the reason why
Someday
