

Dance In The Sand

Shwayze

Uh, yeah, yeah, yeah Certainly you should be filled with uncertainty
For 13 years I've been hurtin' girls purposely
I've been called a worthless freak, a jerk, and a cheat
'cause I turn the other cheek after we fuck for a week. Stop cryin', you know that I don't learn from these mistakes
That I made but the past keeps burning me.
Like meatheads with cigarettes on freshmens and fraternities
But shwayze stay high by burnin' herbal trees with purple leaves. I'm sorry that I hurt your heart but that's just the part
That you're playing in my autobiography
I'm sorry that I did you wrong
I promise that I'll write a song and play it for you
As my apology We gonna walk in twilight
We gonna run in ocean
We gonna dance in the sand tonight We gonna walk in twilight
We gonna run in ocean
We gonna dance in the sand tonight (You know what?)
Maybe girl, you wasn't meant to be my babygirl
Shwayze's just a player and my stage is just this crazy world
But lately lovely I've been thinkin of you all the time
All my friends say I gotta put it all far behind
But I don't mind, ladies jealous you get all my time (yup)
I saw the signs you my ace and base damn you fine (damn)
You got shwayze shakin the rattle, the rattle, cryin like a baby
'cause I sleepless in seattle
Why you in hollywood long legs, short skirt
Tellin' all the dudes how you made my feelin's hurt? We gonna walk in twilight
We gonna run in ocean
We gonna dance in the sand tonight We gonna walk in twilight
We gonna run in ocean
We gonna dance in the sand tonight Dance in the sand
We gonna dance in the sand Dance in the sand like a streets fuckin' sand
Yes I am what I am
What I am is a man We gonna dance in the sand
Dance in the sand, tonight Dance in the sand
'cause we ain't got it planned
Two peas in a pod you and I, me and you
And love is a bitch
Let's hold hands let's get rich

Romance in the stone
Make a home out the house
We'll roam in the day
You know what they say
Every pimp needs a hoe and a lady We gonna walk in (ay!) twilight
We gonna run in (oh!) ocean
We gonna dance in (ay!) the sand tonight
(Every pimp needs a hoe)
